

Europa Organisation Africa (EOA)

What do we manage on behalf of our clients?

Total conference organisation and management including:

- Innovative funding solutions
- Venue sourcing and management
- Event marketing, branding and promotion

- CPD accreditation of scientific programmes
- Delegate travel, transfers, visas and accommodation
- Technical support and communications

- Speaker arrangements
- Exhibition and partnership opportunities
- Complete abstract management
- Timeline management

- Registration and hosting
- Facilitation of industry delegate support within the confines of the MedTech and Medical Device codes

Leadership in conference organisation and management, based on specialist knowledge and experience

Europa Organisation Africa (EOA)

Can we help you facilitate industry support for delegates to third-party conferences?

Signatories to the MedTech and Medical Device codes are no longer permitted to support doctors directly to attend third party organised conferences.

Indirect support is permitted.

Grants may be restricted with certain criteria imposed or may be unrestricted.

Industry partners can provide educational grants through a third party such as Europa Organisation Africa

Europa Organisation Africa will liaise with hospitals, professional societies or other institutions to facilitate delegate selection and sponsorship

Europa Organisation Africa is a trusted MedTech Partner

What sets Europa Organisation Africa (EOA) apart?

Our reputation

Well established, with strong relationships with the health professions and industry

Established reputation - trust, ethics, transparency and reliability

Working with Inspiration

Committed to changing the face of conferences – to transformative interactive, educational, learning experiences aiming to build long-lasting partnerships with our clients

Successful model offering sustainability

Introducing the latest technology

New and effective teaching methods and styles, through our relationship with the Europa Group in France

Backed by international expertise

Competent team with conference organisation experience

Located in Johannesburg

We invite you to meet our passionate and energetic team